After the King and Queen have entered the Building, Their Majesties will be greeted by His Royal Highness the Duke of York and by Her Royal Highness Princess Arthur of Connaught.

The Chancellor will ask Her Majesty's permission for Mrs. C. M. Wilson, M.B.E., to present a bouquet of flowers.

Their Majesties will then be conducted to the Dais in the Library. As Their Majesties enter the Library the National Anthem will be played.

The Right Honourable and Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London will have taken his place on the Dais.

When Their Majesties are seated the Dean will read and present an address to the King to which His Majesty will be graciously pleased to reply and to declare the Building open.

The Right Honourable and Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London will offer up prayer, the whole Assembly standing.

The following hymn will be sung:

Now thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms
Hath bless'd us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him Who reigns
With Them in highest Heaven,
The One Eternal God,
Whom earth and Heav'n adore,
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

Amen.

The Chancellor will present to Their Majesties
